What else you need to know

- You must maintain a minimum of 3.0 cumulative GPA at the time of application AND before commencement of your approved exchange studies abroad.
- If you are a dual degree student or have already taken courses for C/NC, or courses outside of Marshall, participating in the MBA IEP will affect your graduation requirements and might delay your graduation. You are strongly urged to discuss the impact of participating in the MBA IEP on your graduation requirements with your academic advisor.
- You must obtain an approval for all coursework that you will take at your overseas host school before registering for the courses with the host school.
- You must take only letter grade courses at your host school; however, the marks on your USC transcript for the study abroad course (USC500o) will appear as credit/no credit. Total credits awarded at USC for study abroad coursework will be calculated based on the host institution’s official designations of course hours and/or units.
- You will pay tuition to USC at the Marshall MBA rate of the semester that you study abroad and equivalent to USC units you take. In addition to USC tuition, you are responsible for all personal and travel-related expenses including, but not limited to: airfare, transportation, room and board, course materials and supplies, school partner’s application fees, meals, health insurance, passport, visa fees, etc.
- You are responsible for obtaining an appropriate visa to enter and stay in the country of your host school during your exchange semester. It is recommended to have a current passport that is valid for an additional six months after the end of your desired study abroad program.
- You are also responsible for making your own housing arrangements overseas.
